2 KINGS 16:11

saw an altar in Damascus and sent to Uriah the priest for its construction. ¹¹So Uriah the priest built an altar in accordance with all the plans that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus and finished its offerings on it. ¹²He offered up his burnt altar, he approached it and presented offerings¹² on it. ¹³He offered up his burnt offerings and grain offering, poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings¹³ on the altar. ¹⁴The bronze altar that stood before the LORD he brought from the new altar and the temple—and put it on the north side of the new altar.

¹⁵King Ahaz then gave these orders to Uriah the priest: "On the large new altar, offer the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, and the burnt offering and his grain offering, and their drink offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their blood offering. Sprinkle on the altar all the blood of the burnt offerings and sacrifices. But I will use the bronze altar for seeking guidance." ¹⁶And Uriah the priest did just as King Ahaz had ordered.

¹⁷King Ahaz took away the side panels and removed the basins from the Sea from the stands. He removed the Sea from the bronze bulls that supported it and set it on a stone base. ¹⁸He took away the Sabbath canopy that had been built at the temple and removed the royal entryway outside and the temple of the LORD, in deference to the king of Assyria.

¹⁹As for the other events of the reign of Ahaz, and what he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁰Ahaz rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

Hoshea Last King of Israel

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years. ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.

¹⁹ 12 Exodus 29:4-5

¹Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up to attack Hoshea, who had been Shalmaneser's vassal and had paid him tribute. ²But the king of Assyria discovered that Hoshea was a traitor, for he had sent envoys to So¹ king of Egypt, and he no longer paid tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore Shalmaneser seized him and put him in prison. ³The king of Assyria invaded the entire land, marched against Samaria and laid siege to it for three years. ⁴In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, in Gozan on the Habor River and in the towns of the Medes.

Israel Exiled Because of Sin

⁵All this took place because the Israelites had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of Egypt under the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshiped other gods and followed the practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before them, as well as the practices which the kings of Israel had introduced. ⁶The Israelites secretly did things against the LORD their God that were not right. From watchtower to fortified city they built themselves high places in all their towns. ⁷They set up sacred stones and Asherah poles on every hill and under every burned incense, and every high place the LORD had driven out before them had done. They did the wicked things that provoked the LORD to anger. ⁸They worshiped idols, though the LORD had said, "You shall not do this." ⁹The LORD warned Israel and seers. ¹⁰Through all his prophets and seers, ¹¹Turn from your evil ways, in accordance with the entire Law that I commanded your fathers to obey and that I delivered to you through my servants the prophets. ¹²But they would not listen and were as stiff-necked as their fathers, who did not trust in his decrees and the covenant he had made with their fathers and the warnings he had given them. They followed worthless idols and themselves became worthless.

¹³They imitated the nations around them, although the LORD had ordered them, "Do not do as they do," and they did the things the LORD had forbidden them to do.

¹⁴They forsook all the commands of the LORD their God and made for themselves two idols cast in the shape of calves, and an Asherah pole. They bowed down to all the starry hosts, and they worshiped Baal. ¹⁵They sacrificed their sons and daughters into the fire. They practiced divination and sorcery and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

¹⁶So the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from his presence. ¹⁷Only the tribe of Judah was left, and even Judah did not keep the commands of the LORD their God. They followed the practices Israel had introduced. ¹⁸Therefore the LORD rejected all the people of Israel, he afflicted them and gave them into the hands of plunderers, until he thrust them from his presence.

¹⁹When he tore Israel away from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat their king. Jeroboam enticed Israel away from following the LORD and caused them to commit a great sin. ²⁰The Israelites persisted in all the sins of Jeroboam and did not turn away from them. ²¹Because the LORD removed them from his presence, as he had warned through all his servants the prophets, so the people of Israel were taken from their homeland into exile in Assyria, and they are still there.

Samaria Resettled

¹The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the towns of Samaria to replace the Israelites. ²They took over Samaria and lived in its towns. ³When they first lived there, they did not worship the LORD, so he sent lions among them and they killed some of the people. ⁴It was reported to the king of Assyria: "The people you deported and resettled in the towns of Samaria do not know what the god of that country requires. He has sent lions among them, which are killing them off, because the people do not know what he requires."

¹Then the king of Assyria gave this order: "Have one of the priests you took captive from Samaria go back to live there and teach the people what the god of the land requires." ²So one of the priests who had been exiled from Samaria came to live in Bethel and taught them how to worship the LORD.

³Nevertheless, each national group made its own gods in the several towns where they settled, and set them up in the shrines the people of Samaria had made at the high places. ⁴The men from Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men from Cuthah made Nergal, and the men from Hamath made Ashima. ⁵The Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire as sacrifices to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Samaria. ⁶They also appointed all sorts of priests in the shrines to officiate for them as priests in the high places. ⁷They worshiped the LORD, but they also served their own gods at the high places. ⁸They worshiped in accordance with the customs of the nations from which they persist in their former practices. They neither worship the LORD nor adhere to the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands that the LORD gave the descendants of Jacob, whom he named Israel. ⁹When the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites, he commanded them: "Do not worship any other gods or bow down to them, serve them or sacrifice to them." ¹⁰But the LORD, who brought you up out of Egypt with mighty power and outstretched arm, is the one you must worship. To him you shall bow down and to him offer sacrifices. ¹¹You must always be careful to keep the decrees and ordinances, the laws and commands he wrote for you. Do not worship other gods. ¹²Do not forget the covenant I have made with you, and do not worship other gods. ¹³Rather, worship the LORD your God; it is he who will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.

¹⁴They would not listen, however, but persisted in their former practices. ¹⁵Even while these people were worshiping the LORD, they were serving their idols. So this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their fathers did.
